

TSG 071-3401
Issue an Oral Operations Order

Exam

1. An order is a written or an oral communication directing _____.
 - a. movements
 - b. processes
 - c. actions
 - d. responses

2. Which of the below is not a combat order?
 - a. Warning Order
 - b. Standard Operating Procedure
 - c. Operations Order
 - d. Fragmentary Order

3. All combat orders contain ____ paragraphs.
 - a. six
 - b. four
 - c. three
 - d. five

4. Decentralizing decision authority and execution authority to the lowest practical level is known as _____.
 - a. simplicity
 - b. balance
 - c. brevity
 - d. flexibility

5. Time zone _____ should be used in combat orders for the Tennessee area unless otherwise specified.
 - a. ROMEO
 - b. SIERRA
 - c. TANGO
 - d. ZULU

6. Risk reduction control measures are listed under Coordinating instructions in paragraph _____ of the OpOrder.
- a. one
 - b. two
 - c. three
 - d. four
7. Which paragraph may be omitted from a Fragmentary (FRAG) Order?
- a. Situation
 - b. Mission
 - c. Service Support
 - d. None
8. In the Command subparagraph of paragraph five you should state the grid coordinates for _____.
- a. the CP locations
 - b. the mission site
 - c. at least one future location for each command post
 - d. both a and c
9. To prepare an Operations Order at Battalion level you would use _____.
- a. TLP
 - b. MDMP
 - c. TLC
 - d. MOPS
10. To prepare an Operations Order at Company level you would use _____.
- a. TLP
 - b. MDMP
 - c. TLC
 - d. MOPS