

TSG 158-1183

Identify Duties, Responsibilities, and Authority of Commissioned Officers, Warrant Officers, and Noncommissioned Officers.

Exam

1. Duty is the legal or moral obligation to perform a requirement arising from the _____ an individual holds.
 - (a) rank
 - (b) commission
 - (c) position
 - (d) security clearance

2. Officers primarily focus their attention on _____ tasks.
 - (a) individual
 - (b) supportive
 - (c) collective
 - (d) tactical

3. Noncommissioned officers primarily focus their attention on _____ tasks.
 - (a) individual
 - (b) supportive
 - (c) collective
 - (d) tactical

4. Which below is not one of the three general categories of duties?
 - (a) Implied
 - (b) Directed
 - (c) General
 - (d) Specified

5. Responsibility assumes that you, as a leader, are capable of making _____ decisions on your own.
 - (a) rational and correct
 - (b) moral and correct
 - (c) rational and moral
 - (d) politically correct

6. The NCO Support Channel is a/an _____ channel of communication.

- (a) informal
- (b) formal
- (c) unauthorized
- (d) casual

7. Commissioned Officers in the State Guard derive their legal authority from the _____.

- (a) President of the U.S.
- (b) Congress
- (c) State Assembly
- (d) Governor of the State

8. when a Commissioned Officer of one battalion stops a soldier from another unit to give instructions on military courtesy or to make an on-the-spot correction, he is exercising _____ military authority.

- (a) command
- (b) specific
- (c) tactical
- (d) general

9. Warrant Officers perform the role of highly _____ officers who operate, maintain, administer, and manage the Guard's equipment support activities or technical systems for an entire career.

- (a) skilled
- (b) trained
- (c) specialized
- (d) experienced

10. The _____ focuses on individual training that leads to mission capability.

- (a) Commissioned Officer
- (b) Warrant Officer
- (c) Noncommissioned Officer
- (d) Commander

