

Apply the Ethical Decision-making Method at Small Unit Level

TNSG 158-1230

Final Exam

1. An ethical problem involves the question:
 - a. How does this action affect my career?
 - b. What impact will this have on me?
 - c. What is right or wrong, good or bad?
 - d. What would the CO do?

2. Which is not a step in the Ethical Reasoning Process?
 - a. Define the problem.
 - b. Know the rules.
 - c. Consult subordinates
 - d. Choose the course of actions that best suits military values.

3. Sometimes what looks like an ethical problem may stem from:
 - a. A moral dilemma.
 - b. A personality clash.
 - c. A religious conflict.
 - d. A misunderstanding of a regulation or policy.

4. List 4 of the 7 Military Values
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____

5. The Golden rule is a valid moral principle in military ethical decision – making.
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. A moral principle that many times will alleviate the possibility of conflict is:

- a. Ignore the problem.
- b. Use a hypothetical scenario when first presenting the problem.
- c. Try and resolve the problem at the lowest level.
- d. Don't tell party involved.

7. The hardest step in solving problems is:

- a. Know the Rules
- b. Define the Problem
- c. Develop and Evaluate Courses of Action
- d. Choose the Course of Action that Best Represents Military Values.

8. Define Honor:

9. Define Duty :

10. List the four steps of the Reasoning Process:

- 1. _____
 - 2. _____
 - 3. _____
 - 4. _____
-