

TSG 020-0001
Duties of Warrant Officers
Final Exam

1. The primary role of an entry-level warrant officer is that of:
 - (a) a staff officer on the battalion planning staff
 - (b) a technical/ tactical manager and leader certified to perform those duties required in a single military occupational specialty.
 - (c) a member of a training department.
 - (d) special advisor to a department head.

2. Warrant Officers conduct:
 - (a) Collective Training
 - (b) Individual Training
 - (c) Collective and Individual Training
 - (d) Technical Training only

3. At what level do Warrant Officers serve as institutional instructors/training developers and advisor/project officers for functional area planning and policy development on mid-level command staffs?
 - (a) WO1
 - (b) CWO2
 - (c) CWO3
 - (d) CWO4

4. Warrant Officer cannot command:
 - (a) Technical Detachments
 - (b) Line companies
 - (c) Sections
 - (d) Technical Units

5. Which one of the responsibilities listed below is common to both Commissioned Officers and Warrant Officers?
 - (a) Is primarily involved with units and unit operations.
 - (b) Operates, maintains, administers and manages the Guard's equipment, support activities, or technical systems.
 - (c) Concentrates on the standards of performance, training, and professional development of other officers, warrant officers, NCO's and civilians.
 - (d) Focuses on integration of collective, leader and soldier training leading to mission accomplishment.

6. Which one of the responsibilities listed below is common to both Warrant Officers and Noncommissioned Officers?

- (a) Focuses on collective, leader and individual training leading to mission accomplishment.
- (b) Is primarily involved with individual soldier and team leading.
- (c) Concentrates on unit effectiveness and readiness.
- (d) Concentrates on the standards of performance, training, and professional development of subordinate NCOs and soldiers.

7. Institutional training and education consists of:

- (a) resident instruction
- (b) Non-resident Instruction
- (c) Unit Instruction
- (d) resident and nonresident instruction

8. Operational assignments:

- (a) Test skills
- (b) translate theory into practice
- (c) provide progressive and sequential education
- (d) are of little value in training Warrant Officers

9. Leader development is cooperative and:

- (a) dynamic
- (b) on-going
- (c) holistic
- (d) finite

10. _____ are ultimately responsible for Leader development of Warrant Officers and must be pro-active.

- (a) Commanders
- (b) Warrant Officer Department Heads
- (c) Individuals
- (d) Units